Dudley residents have 'hit the jackpot' as a new casino is opened to the public — Shaftesbury Casino - Dudley —

A brand new casino has been opened in the West Midlands - will you be visiting?

Residents across Dudley are said to have 'hit the jackpot' with the launch of a new Shaftesbury Casino - the newest addition to the West Midlands towns entertainment scene.

A spokesperson for the new site, said: "Shaftesbury Casino is set to become Dudley's premier entertainment destination, offering not only an extensive array of gaming options but also regular live performances, local dining, and special events. The casino's state-of-the-art facilities and exceptional customer service aim to provide an unforgettable experience for all visitors."

Charles Griffin, general manager at Shaftesbury Casino Dudley, said: "Here at Shaftesbury Casino, our core aim is to provide unparalleled entertainment across the West Midlands. The successful launch of the Dudley Casino allows us to continue bringing the best entertainment to our customers across the region and we're dedicated to creating a first-rate experience for all our guests. So, if you're passing by, looking for entertainment, or seeking a top-notch night out that is just a stone's throw from Dudley High Street, come on by - our team would be delighted to welcome you."

Located on Castle Hill, opposite the Dudley Zoo and Castle, the recently refurbished venue opened its doors with a night of excitement, live entertainment, and a mixture gaming experiences. Named the Shaftesbury Casino Dudley - the betting building was bought from Genting earlier this year. Since the purchase it has seen a major programme of work completed to transform the venue into a new destination for Dudley and the wider West Midlands.

The firm launched live poker tables as well as live roulette and blackjack at the site, in addition to a full refurbishment and internal expansion. The external façade of the building has also been updated and a full programme of entertainment, hospitality and gaming planned for the rest of the year.
